IT LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

AN INNOCENT RABE MALICIOUSLY THROWN INTO A CANAL.

Will Cross Bats in Petersburg-The Ques tion of a Primary Ran Off With Tramps Easter Services.

MANCHISTER BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES,

1121 HULL STREET. BEATTIE BLOCK. It looks very much as if there is a genuine case of murder in this city to be answered for by some guilty party, if caught. Wednesday morning, about 7:30 clock, a white infant was found in the canal on the Manchester side near the mill of Warner Moore & Co. Suspicion of foul play was at once aroused, and it which was accordingly held Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock by Coroner Brodnax, the verdict being that the child came to its death from drowning. It has not been ascertained who are the parents of the infant, or who the guilty party is, of the infant, or who the guilty party is. The case is enshrouded in mystery. The Forest Hill base-ball nine has just been reorganized for the coming season, and they will play their first game next Monday, when they will cross bats with the team in Petersburg. It is the intention of the clubs to play two games. Hattorf and Thomas will be the battery for the Manchester boys, and Quarles and Keefer for the Cockade City "cranks." Keefer for the Cockade City "cranks."

It is the general belief in Manchester that the city committee, of which Colonel G. K. Macon is chairman, and the candidates for postmaster will hold a conference soon, when the matter of a primary will be discussed. One of the members of the city committee said yes-terday afternoon that if the question of holding a primary was left to the com-mittee that organization would decide in the negative.

Nothing has been heard of James Ash-Nothing has been heard of James Asston Moore, who left home on last Tuesday in company with two tramps. Young Moore is the son of W. C. Moore, who lives on west Seventh street, and is fourteen years of age. He has brown hair and fair skin, and when last seen wore a blue jacket, brown trousers, cordury hat. It is believed that he went towards Lynchburg on the Chesapeake and Ohlo. Lynchburg on the Chesapeake and Ohio

The Hull-street cars, instead of running to Broadrock road, as was expected yes-terday, only ran to the street-car stable, two squares this side of Clopton street. The transfer car has been coming down to the stable.

It is very protable that this schedule will be changed very soon, as the Swans-boro people are protesting loudly against

A HOME WEDDING.

Ciss Lizzie Sauer Made the Bride of Mr. Samuel Bruce Dunstan.

A very pretty home wedding was cele brated last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Fred. Brauer, No. 16 north Laurel street, when Miss Lizzie Sauer became the Mr. Samuel B. Dunstan, of Stephensville.

The ceremony was a very impressive one, and was performed by Rev. Faul Menzel, of St. John's German Lutheran church.

The mantel in the front parlor was banked with roses and other cut flowers, and a beautiful array of carnations peeped from among a rich profusion of smilax, ferns and pot palms in different portions of the room. Between the folding doors was an exquisite arch of white roses and maiden-hair fern, and a large marriage bell, made of roses, hung from the centre.

Miss Flora Dunstan, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and Mr. H. R. Pol-lard, Jr., best man.

The bride looked very pretty in a hand-some gown of white silk, trimmed in white bengaline and beads. She carried in her hand a large bouquet of bridal

The bridal couple entered from a side door, and stood beneath the bell, where they were pronounced man and wife. A large number of relatives and friends A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance, among them: Mrs. James E. Flynn, of Baltimore, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Robert Bristoe, of Missouri, aunt of the groom; Mr. C. E. Sauer, brother of the bride; Mr. Charles Dunstan, Mr. H. Griparwell and others.

Mr. H. Grimswell and others.

After the ceremony a reception was given, and this was followed by an elegant collation. The dining-room was beautifully decorated with azaleas and lilies, with paims and ferns artistically arranged about the room.

The bride is the daughter of the late C.

The bride is the daughter of the late C.

F. Sauer, who was for many years a prominent merchant of this city. She is a young lady of many attractive characteristics, and is very popular among a host of friends in Richmond.

The groom is a prominent young business man, and numbers his friends by the score.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunstan left last night on the 10:45 train for Denver, Colorado, their future home, where the groom will become a partner in a large wholesale house.
